After the wedding Lieut, and Mrs. Rodney left for Newcastle, Del., where the happy couple will visit relatives of the groom. After the 6th of next month they will be at their future home, Whipple Barracks, Artzona, where the officer has been ordered for duty.

Notwithstanding the air of general excitament that prevailed with society folks this week, they were entirely unprepared for a surprise that was spring upon them late Wednesday night, when the announcement came from Waycross Ga, that Mr. James Mchae Hatch, a prominent young society man of this city, who had gone to Waycross to attend the marriage of his friend, Mr. James Sinciair, formerly of, Wilmington, had married suddenly one of the bride's attendants. If was a case of love at first sight, Mr. Hatch met the young lady, Miss Neille Gross, of Athens, Ga., Monday night. Between that time and Wednesday evening Cupld worked energetically, and well, for at the conclusion of his friend's marriage, Mr. Hatch led Miss Gross to the altar. Accompanied by his bride, he passed through Wilmington Thursday on his way to Asheville,
